

RuiHan Wang

riannabluebellart@gmail.com (236)-878-8684

Summary

Visual arts graduate with experience supporting community-based arts programs and educational environments. Skilled in organizing materials, assisting with program delivery, and maintaining safe and engaging spaces. Strong interest in heritage, exhibitions, and collections work. Detail-oriented, adaptable, and experienced working with diverse communities.

Core Skills

Collections • exhibitions • Heritage • research interest • Customer Service • Cash Handling & Payment Processing • Program Registration • Facility Operations & Set-Up • Teamwork • Time Management • Safety Awareness • Office 360

Languages: English • Mandarin Chinese • Japanese

Work Experience

One Art Studio - Art teacher

2025 September - present

- Organized and maintained art materials and studio inventory
- Assisted with daily operations, including opening/closing and space upkeep
- Supported program delivery in a structured learning environment
- Supervised participants and ensured safe use of materials

Emily Carr University of Art + Design - Teens Program Assistants

2024 July - 2025 July

- Supported program delivery for groups of 10–20 participants in a fast-paced educational setting
- Prepared and organized materials for workshops and activities
- Maintained clean and structured workspaces
- Assisted instructors in coordinating activities and ensuring program flow
- Worked with diverse youth participants from various backgrounds

GPI North American - Conversion buddy & university buddy

2018 March - 2024 August

- Supported group programs and facilitated participant engagement
- Assisted in organizing activities and maintaining structured environments
- Helped ensure safety and positive participant experience

Education

Bachelor of Visual Arts — Emily Carr University (2025)

Diploma — Vancouver Film School (2020)